

MARIANO GARCÍA

Mariano García is a musician with a passion for music and pedagogy.

He is professor at the University Luca School of Music and Arts in Leuven in Belgium where he teaches the Master and postgraduate degree, as well as in ESMUC in Barcelona. He has been teacher for 11 years in the Conservatorio Superior de Música de Aragón in Zaragoza, Spain. Since 2016 he has been a professor at the European University of Saxophone in the summer courses in Gap (France). He was a professor at the Wiener Akademie Musik, Austria.

He participates in several international festivals as a teacher and concert performer, Andorra Sax Fest since its beginnings, Vienna Sax Fest (Austria), Birmingham School of Music, Royal Conservatoire of Brussels, Panticosa (Spain) and several cities in Portugal, Italy and China, as well as invited by prestigious American Universities. Required as a jury in International Competitions.

He forms the chamber duo AniMa DUO together with the excellent pianist Aniana Jaime with whom he has recorded three CDs praised by critics and public. The first of them with the title Sculptures where they recorded transcriptions of the great chamber music, discovering a new vision of this beautiful instrument. The second album, titled Ritmo en el Espacio (Rhythm in Space), consists of the world's first recordings of prestigious contemporary Spanish composers.

In October 2020 they will release a new recording with contemporary works from the saxophone repertoire, most of them first world recordings.

He is Selmer artist.
